

Western Nevada College

2023-2024 Catalog Addendum – Certificate of Achievement Description Revision

Certificate of Achievement - Computer Information Technology

The Certificate of Achievement in Computer Information Technology allows a student to gain foundational knowledge and earn a different industry recognized certifications that align with specific job opportunities in a variety of technology areas such as programming, front end or back end developer, networking, cybersecurity, IT program management and other emerging fields. Students may pursue different areas of personal or professional interests based on their choice of electives.