Summary of Discussion	Viri: She went to the Presidential search meeting and the college decided to pay a consultant to find a President. She asks senators for their opinion on what students would like in a college president. They have until Jan. 24 to give their feedback. A woman would like to put on Hipno-palooza and psychological events at the college for welcome back week. She asks senators for their opinions. Driving awareness at the college. She asks senators what they would think of having this program at the college. Some senators would feel more comfortable if students were simply passengers and not driving the simulation cars. This may possibly happen in May or April.

	President Covarrubias: Asks senators for more feedback on their opinion on master planning. She will be out of town for a board of regents meeting in Las Vegas. She informs members that Taylor Smokey resigned her position Nov. 22 at 2:45 pm.
