Summary of Discussion	Elizabeth reminds everyone to communicate on reading over the minutes. President Miranda discusses the possibility of student emails. They are very expensive, so the chances are low that we will be able to get student emails. President Miranda asks for members input. Alex feels strongly that students should get emails for discounts because they do not know about other options. President Miranda asks about how much student interest there is. Alexis reminds members about a survey asking students about student email interest. Elizabeth reminds members to keep the packets that they were presented during this meeting.
Assignments/Potential Agenda Items	Bringing in Susan from technology or Darla or Diane to talk to members about the student email issue.
